

International
Food & Agricultural Trade
Policy Council

The World Food Law Institute, the International Food & Agricultural Trade Policy Council (IPC) and the American Society of International Law cordially invite you to a Round Table discussion on:

The Role of Standards in Global Food Trade

Although attention during the Doha Round agricultural negotiations has focused on tariffs and quotas, standards play an equally important if not more important role in global food trade. Ms. Gretchen Stanton, Secretary of the WTO's Sanitary and Phytosanitary (SPS) Committee, will speak about standards in global food trade and about key topics before the SPS Committee.

Mr. C. Christopher Parlin of Miller Chevalier LLP and Mr. Mark Mansour of Foley & Lardner LLP will serve as commentators.

When: September 24, 2007 – 4:00-5:30 p.m.

Where: The Cosmos Club, 2121 Massachusetts Ave., NW

Space is limited; please RSVP promptly to The World Food Law Institute at worldfoodlaw@law.howard.edu

Save the date: A roundtable discussion on private sector standards will be held on November 13, 2007, 4:30-6:00 p.m. at The Cosmos Club
